ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS.

THEIS Company has been formed for the purpose of purchasing or otherwise acquiring, all those pieces or parcels of Land situate at Victoria in the Island of Hongkong, and Registered in the Land Office as Sections A. B and C and the Remaining Portion of Marine Lot No. 13, and Section A of Marine Lot No. 12, together with the tenement and buildings thereon known as the Victoria Hotel, and all the rights of the Vendor to reclamations and extensions seawards in respect of Section C and the Remaining Portion of Marine Lot No. 13 under and by virtue of the Praya Reclamation Ordinance 1889, and also any rights of the Vendor (if he has any such rights) under the same Ordinance, in respect of Sections A and B of Marine Lot No. 13, and also of purchasing or otherwise acquiring the goodwill of the business of Hotel Proprietors, and Tavern Keepers as now carried on by Messrs Dorabjee and Hing Kee at the Victoria Hotel, together with all the Plant, Furniture, Fixtures and Stock of the Hotel. The main object of the Company is to carry on the business of Hotel-keepers, and other businesses incidental thereto, on the premises at present known as the Victoria Hotel, and if need be to acquire other sites and erect other buildings for Hotel purposes, as empowered by the Memorandum of Association.

The present Victoria Hotel has been carried on under the successful management of Mr Dorabjee Nowrojee for the last 6 years. This gentleman has had 19 years experience as an Hotel Manager, and on the formation of the New Company he has consented to act as Manager of the Hotel, and Mr Ismail Pulley Madar, who has been in the service of Mr Dorabjee Nowrojee for 19 years as Book-keeper and Assistant Manager, is willing to continue to act as General Assistant. The Company will, if it is thought desirable, also retain the old and experienced staff of servants with which the Hotel for the last six years has been so successfully brought to its present position.

The average yearly profit for the last three years is $18,026.60, and as it is proposed to expend at once about $35, 00 in building and furnishing 29 additional bedrooms to the existing Hotel, and in making other small but much needed improvements, it is anticipated that with these additional rooms and the consequential increase in the consumption of Wine and Liquors, the nett annual carnings of the Company should not be less than $40,000, as the running expenses of the Hotel will not be materially increased by such addi-

The property proposed to be bought by the Company is at present in lease to Mr Dorabjee Nowrojee, An Agreement has been made for the Assignment of this lease to the Company

In the Supreme Court to-day, Mr Phillippo applied for a writ of Habeas Corpus on 8 0.75 behalf of Li Pi Sze, whose rendition is demanded by the Chinese Government. H 0.75 based his application on the ground that full liberty to cross-examine witnesses was not given him by the Magistrate. Supper was served in the fine conservatory, amids exotic tropical plents and flowers. All the ladies invited to this ball had been request ed to wear no jewe's or diamonds, and t adorn their bair only with many and bright coloured pinks, and also to drape themselves in Manila shawls—in fact, to imitate the popular costume worn by the mandas, or woman of the lower classes, in popular festivities, that have taken place in Madrie lately. There was, in consequence, a remarkable display of simple head-dresses à la Espanola, with bright flowers and an unrivalled display of Manila shawls of great value and of every imaginable colour into between bong fide holders of stock, and time bargains of which the vere essence is gembling. That to put a stop to the selling of property which you do not own is the real object of the ordinance, and where bong fide business only is intended (instead of a gambling transaction) all such fair transactions as Mr Ackroyd refers to can easily be carried out under the new Ordinance, if the shares contracted for are under the control of the purchaser or

That the public doubtless would gladly agree with Mr McEwen as to Mr Nicolle's competent knowledge, if they had the opportunity of seeing this report - which laid on the table. That perhaps Mr Nicollo's light has been hid under a bushel because it partook too much of the search-light character. and as the Post Office, the Treasury, the old Audit Department, and the Crown Agency have all been placed under the search-light with disastrous results, it was perhaps discreet on the part of the Acting Governor to keep the brilliant system of the money-spending Public

That, speaking of the new Auditor, I hear that he has come out to audit Revenue only, and that all Expenditure is audited by a staff at Home who can know but little about it. That, while fully admitting the feebleness and practical uselessness of the old local audit as has been recently demonstrated. this dual system certainly has the appearance of a very clumsy expedient. Phat—to return to Mr Fleming's closing address-it is satisfactory to know that we are to have a new law on Bankruptcy (promised for very many years), a modifi-cation of the Emigration laws, and an amendment of the Opium Ordinance. That it seems strange the Governor should

HOTEL.

A JOURNALIST EJEUTED. In the Police Court this morning, before Mr Robinson, a charge of assault was brought by Mr G. W. Ward, journalist, against Mr J. Molnnes, assistant, Honghis own case, and Mr Hastings (of Messrs.) Wotton and Leacon's Office) appeared for the defendant.

G. W. Ward, the complainant, gave the following evidence: -I am editor of the Hongkong Telegraph. On Sunday, the 20th inst about 10.30 mm., I was in the Hongkong Hotel bar-room with some friends. We had two drinks. We were all quite sober and quiet: Accidentally I knocked over a liqueur glass. A bar-boy brought a the date and my residence, and the words coe liqueur glass. took the chit away, and a few moments later brought it back, telling me something that Mr Mulanes had said. I told the boy I had signed for the glass and that was all I would do. Mr McInnes. whom I had not seen till this moment came to me then and said 'You must sign fifty cents for this. I was very much surprised that he should make an arbitrary charge like that and I refused to do what he wanted. I told him I had already signed for one lindeur glass. He said that if I didn't sign for lifty cents he would give me in charge. He told the boy to bring policeman. Before a policeman came I tendered Mr McInnes a dollar, saying I only recognised Mr Tucker, the manager of the hotel, as the person to fix a charge for the glass, and I saked him to give Mr Tucker the dollar that he might deduct the price of the glass from it. Mr McInnes would listen to nothing but that I should sign for fifty cents, and refused to take the dollar Police Sergeant Kemp then came to the door. Mr McInnes told him to take me into custody. I at once expressed my wil linguess to accompany Sergeaut Kemp, but he would not have anything to do with the matter. Mr McInnes persisted that if did not sign he would put me out. I pointed out that I had already signed for whatever Mr Tucker might fix as the value of the glass. I then went to the office counter. outside the bar, and began to write a no shortly explaining the circumstances to Mr Tucker, and whilst I was in the middle of his fingers down between my coat and my neck and told me to get out. > But perhaps the lowest and most degraded women are found in Africa. One of the kings of a savage tribe is said to have had 358 wives passing Solomon on the homestretch in the conjugal race and winning the pennant by two lengths. One of the most peculiar customs is found among the Congo negroes. When a man wishes a wife he secures one and keeps her on probation a year. If during this time her temper, industry and department are satisfactory he at the end of the year formally marries her. But, should she prove an incumbrance, he sends her back to the parental roof. This is regarded by all as an excellent arrangement.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

CHANCERY DIVISION, LONDON-JOHN OAKEY AND SONS V. WILLIAM PLATAU AND SONS. This was a motion, which he parties agreed to treat as the trial of the action, before Mr Justice Kay, on June 9th, for an injunction to restrain the defendants from selling, or offering for sale, goods not made by the plain iffs, so got upand labelled as toinduce the trade and public to believe that such goods were goods of the plaintiffs manufacture, and from passing off on the trade and public goods not made by the plaintiffs es and for goods of the plaintiff, and from infringing the plaintiffs' registered trade marks. According to the statement of claim the plaintiffs had for 50 years carried on business at Wellington Mills, Westminster Bridge-road, Surrey, as glass paper, emery cloth, emery, and black lead manufacturers. Their trade mark was Wellington. the 19th. September, 1876, they registered as a label for knife polish their trade mark, No. 2,048, registering at the same time the name 'Wellington,' together with a head of Wellington. In January, 1889, the defendant, a drysalter, set up a trade in knife polish, &c., selecting the name Nelson' for his trade mark, but not using it because it differed in material particulars from the plaintiffs' registered trade mark. The defendant issued a price list, in which he inserted part of the plaintiffs price list verbatim, and had endeavoured by this and other means to pass off on the trade and the public his goods as goods of the plaintiffs' The defence was an almost point blank depial of the allegations in the statement of claim, fortified by a statement that the trade mark used by the defendant was adopted by an arrangement with the plaintiffs, who, for good consideration, had agreed not to object to the modified use of the trade mark by the defendant. Mr. Martin, Q.O., Mr. Fletcher Moulton, Q.C., and Mr. Willis Bund appeared for the plaintiffs; Mr. Aston, Q.O., Mr. Renshaw, Q.C., and Mr. Ingle Joyce for the defendant.

Mr. Justice Kay, without calling upon counsel for the plaintiffs to reply, said this was a case in which the defendant had evidently determined to do everything in his power to get the advantage and the trade of another man by passing off his goods among the class of people who bought this class of goods, as the goods of the plaintiffs. He had gone as nearly as he dare to Francisco. an exact imitation of the label and get-up generally of the canisters in which the plaintiffs were accustomed to sell their Company, but but, Queen's Boad Control. goods; and he wanted to persuade the Court, although his intention to commit a fraud was manifest, that the arm of the Court was not long enough to reach him. True, the defendant had substituted a dismond for the oval, but he (Mr Justice Kay) had no doubt that his device was intended to deceive, that it was, in fact, a continuation of the fraud in which the defendant began The Court could not help dealing with a case of this kind with consi erable disgust and indignation. He should grant the injunction asked for, and order the defendant to pay the costs of the motion.
